

Name: Graeme Stewart

Qualification: His educational background is in creative writing and literature.

Working Experience: Over 18 years working experience. He worked in Cambodia as a program coordinator with Save the Children Norway (Redd Barna) from 1992 to 1997 and with the UN as a camp manger in East Timor from 2000 to 2003. He is a trainer in academic English, presentation and research skills and report and proposal writing.

Areas of Expertise: Project and organizational development.

Current Position & Name of institution: He currently works as a project formulator at Our Home Vulnerable Children Project and a program coordinator at Limkokwing University of Creative Technology in Phnom Penh.

Specific Experience relevance: program accountability/feasibility, relationship/communication.