

Name: Lim Siv Hong

Qualification: BS in agriculture from the royal University of Chamkar Dong, Cambodia, and an M.A. in Management of Rural Development from Khorn Kean University, in Thailand, and Chevening certificate on Government Relation with NGOs and Civil Society in the UK in year 2009.

Working Experience: A social development specialist with more than 18 years experience working with government institutions, NGOs, and communities. She served for full 3 terms, as member of the VBANK board, and has significantly dedicated to promote a stronger and accountable civil society in Cambodia.

Areas of Expertise: rural development management, civil society capacity building, gender-based violence, Women Political Participation and anti-trafficking in persons, and managed programs from different aspect, including project design, grant management, workplan development, monitoring and evaluation, impact assessment, report writing, and coordination.

Current Position & Name of institution: Program Officer at The Asia Foundation.

Specific Experience relevance: Governance, Relationship/Communication and Program Quality.

Involvement in NGO GPP: Since February 2005