

Name: Olivet Visda

Qualification: Her educational background is in Community Development and Development Management with a special interest in community organizing approach, transformational and capacity development, disaster management, and exit strategies

Working Experience: More than 20 years professional experience with international and local NGOs and the government . She started working with the grassroots as a Community Organizer, led project developments and implementation as a Program Manager and evaluated multiple projects and organizations as a consultant.

Areas of Expertise: capacity development, program development and evaluation, organizational assessment and development, community empowerment and developing exit strategies

Current Position & Name of institution: She is the Capacity Development Advisor of CORD-Asia and a part time consultant

Specific Experience relevance: Governance, Financial Management, Organizational Development, Program Management