

Plan International Cambodia

“Our policies and procedures always ensure that the welfare of children comes first”

Job Announcement

Plan International is an independent development and humanitarian organization that advances children’s rights and equality for girls. Working together with children, young people, our supporters and partners, we strive for a just world, tackling the root causes of the challenges facing girls and all vulnerable children. We support children’s rights from birth until they reach adulthood and enable children to prepare for – and respond to – crises and adversity. We drive changes in practice and policy at local, national and global levels using our reach, experience and knowledge. We have been building powerful partnerships for children for over 80 years, and are now active in more than 70 countries across the world. Plan International has been working with children and young people in Cambodia since 2002 to help them reach their full potential and we are one of the largest International NGOs operating in the country today. Plan International Cambodia is looking for qualified candidate for the positions below:
