Agenda

The 7 April 2016 CCC's Bi-monthly members meeting is the 241th Member Meeting since 1991. Based on CCC's Bylaw, the meeting is designed for country representatives/executive directors and/or senior leaders/managers of CCC members to attend and bring the common concerns on the development challenges and prioritized the issues to be addressed by relevant stakeholders. The 241th meeting will be convened with the following objectives:

1. To share information and update members about status of LANGO, mid-term review of National Strategic Development Plan (NSDP), localization process of Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), engagement with G7 and G20, and CCC's internal milestones which are beneficial to CCC members.
2. To present preliminary result of quick survey on taxation in civil society, and discuss on its way forward
3. To launch a new initiative called "culturing good practice and sustainability of Community Based Organizations".
4. To generate feedback/inputs from members on zero draft on Global Reference Standards for CSO Accountability
