Cambodian people now become active citizen which they understand theirs rights and freedom, be brave, have high responsibility and actively participate in social work. It reflects the power of people and society as a whole. Through many efforts, Cambodia has increased knowledge on peace culture; this is the movement of Cambodia.</li> <li>- Continuation of discrepancy and polarization  If the ruling class fails to address the common people’s grievances, and fail to establish a constitutional order: Democratic political culture, Rule of law, Justice, Administration as service. This an opportunity for CSO to work to fulfill these gaps</li> <li>- Role of and Opportunities for the Civil Society:  Consolidating its past gains and extending them further, assisting in developing the political order to catch up with and be ahead of social change in order to address known shortcomings and meet the common people’s grievances and aspirations (chart: Political System):</li> </ul> 2- Ms. AULI Starck: Inclusive partnership between CSO and Government, experience from Finland. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- The Kepa is an umbrella organization and working in similar areas to CCC in Cambodia. It is a Finnish CSO platform and expert organization with 312 member organizations.</li> </ul> 3- Dr. SAM Inn (Presentation and sharing on Right-based approach)  How is the right base approach for development work <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- The vision of LWD want to see people living in peace, dignity &amp; harmony in a democratic &amp; justice society, united in diversity &amp; empowered to achieve</li> </ul>

	their universal rights. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Our mission is to facilitate the empowerment of vulnerable rural people to claim their universal rights.</li> <li>- We have used and transferred from the People Empowerment to Right Based Approach which is then considered as a key to motivate people to appropriately exercise their rights and participate in the development process. The next strategy is people right based</li> <li>- First approach of People Empowerment, when the family, group and community have problem they always see the dark situation, so LWD working to motivate people's hope that they can change this situation</li> <li>- Secondly, the Right Based approach first in duties barer is local authority they can help to community and we need to strengthen the knowledge of community on their right</li> </ul> Question from participants <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Mr. Khemra, from VOA media, raised question to Dr. Lao Mong Hai, I have asked a question to CCC related to political deadlock and some to donation country has skipped their donation to Cambodia, CCC told me that more or less it has impact to some fund to NGO in Cambodia, what do you think? if the political deadlock is still continue, does it has impact to the fund provide to NGO or not? If it has impact to NGOs what are the problems will be happened in Cambodia?</li> <li>- Mr. Singuon, My Village Organization , question to Mr. Lao Mon Hai, in order to have one solution required to has compromise from ruling party, in your perspective can it have the compromise from ruling party?</li> <li>- Mr. Vicheth, Pdao Organization, my question is connected to the first question which is related to international aid, is it a good option or not that the big development partners and donors think that because of issue related to political deadlock and they stop donation as a pressure, so who got the impact?, in your perspective what do you think? They should reconsider or not?</li> </ul> Answer: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Related compromising, now most of them are completely absorbed the power and property so it is difficult to ask them for compromising, they do not willing to do compromising but they cope the situation by violence.</li> <li>- Now, government has been reformed, so the NGO can help them in the areas that we can help such as provide social service. When we request them to reform and improve we should point the areas for them.</li> </ul> Question: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Mrs. El Sothery, CCC, question to Dr. SAM Inn and Ms. AULI Starck, when we want mainstreaming inclusive partnership approach into development process, especially participation from grass root people, in the starting point what should we priority?</li> </ul> Answer: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- When we use right based approach with community at the beginning we have problem with local authority, after that we have explained to them about our job and role is to help people to understand their right and use their right to solve the problem. The main role of government is help people to understand their rights and exercise their rights. After that we always involved local authority with our activities.
